Looking ahead to 2004 by Don Terranova

We will continue in 2004 with all the events that were successful last year as well as adding some new ones. Dennis is considering a run to Cabella's Sporting World with a food stop along the way. Of course we have the February Philadelphia Auto show by the way 2/3 of the bus seats are taken, if you snooze you'll loose. We'll also have more Gimmick Rallies in 2004, including one during the Cavalcade, open to the public. I'm hoping to put together a couple of cruises this summer to Shanks Drive-In Theater slightly north of Allentown. I've seen groups there with folding chairs card tables with wine and cheese etc...sort of like a tailgate party. We could make this a real fun event. These are just a few things to come, if you have an event in mind or if you would like to help with other events let us know at dpterranova@yahoo.com or come to the meeting or post a message on the CCDV Website.

I hope everyone had a very Merry Christmas, Chanukah or Kwanza and I wish everyone a healthy and wonderful New Year. Thanks, Don

Looking Back at 2003 and Wondering - Don Terranova

I thought it would be nice to recap our activities for the past year. When looking at last year's calendar I was taken back by just how much we do as a group. We offered a variety of events; let me list some, the Philadelphia Auto Show, Marksmen night, the Murder Mystery Dinner, Racing every warm month, Go Cart night, Hot Dog and Chicken Runs, the Crab Dash, the Ice Cream Run, a couple of Dinners, our Saturday Night Cruises, the Tiki Bar Cruise, The Cavalcade, a couple of Parades, Hatboro Car Show, Carlisle, Road Rally, Road Rally Picnic, Boardwalk shows OC, NJ & OC, MD, Garage Tour, the Holiday Party and more that weren't listed on the calendar I'm sure.

We offer quite a wide variety of events to our members at the same time helping Charities throughout the year. However mostly the same people can be seen at these events, helping out and enjoying themselves. With a membership of over 500 I ask myself where are the other 400 plus members? We plaster events all over the CCDV Website and send each member a Monthly Newsletter with information, why aren't they here? Where are they? Who are they? After thinking about this for a good while I've come up with 2 possibilities. One, you had around $50 burning a hole in your pocket and you found yourself standing next to a CCDV membership booth. You handed it over to the person there with the clipboard, your plan was to give him your name then disappear into the sunset never to be seen or heard from again. Or secondly maybe you where like me. I joined the Club because I enjoy my Vette and wanted to associate with people with similar interests, go on Cruises, Rallies etc... Right? Then I went to my first CCDV Meeting, I felt like the new kid in High School that transferred in from out of State, I didn't know a single person there. I decided to give the club 6 months, if after that time I still felt out of place I'd simply stop going and not renew my membership for the next year.

The first General Membership Meeting I attended, I sat next to Rich Rogers, also a new member and now I consider Rich and his lovely wife Miriam friends. My first CCDV event was Dennis' Chicken Run. My Wife and I had a very nice time, it was a perfect day (Dennis has the supernatural ability to control the weather) and we met Paul Wydominic and his wonderful wife Ginny, whom we now also consider our friends. I didn't have to wait the 6 months trial run, after the first event I realized that these were very nice people with the same interests as me. My wife and I have attended quite a number of events last year and had a good time on all of them, even the rainy ones (We forgot to talk to Dennis). Since the Chicken Run we have met many more wonderful folks and enjoyed every minute.

I'm telling this for a reason, if you're not attending the events because you don't know anyone, you're missing out. Come to our meetings, go to our events, when you do, don't sit at an empty table find a table with one empty seat introduce yourself and within a short time you will find yourself sitting with friends you didn't know you had. Trust me it will happen, Don Terranova.

HOODS UP – by Sue Magaruh

As we welcome 2004 it seems not only natural, but also traditional to look back and reflect. With that in mind, I recently asked a few members to tell me about their most memorable Corvette days. It seems good medicine for body and soul while waiting out the winter months and hibernating cars. Bob Rosenberg was first to respond and below is his writing on the subject. Happy New Year! Enjoy!

While all days that I drive my 1999 Torch Red FRC are great, there are a few days that stand out. Bringing home a trophy from the 2003 Atco Show and Go was enjoyable. Drag racing at Englishtown and Atco with some measure of personal accomplishment was a lot of fun. Whether on the way to get a hot dog in Easton or crabs in St. Michaels, a caravan is a terrific way to spend time with fellow Vette enthusiasts. A line of 40 or 50 Corvettes traveling to a common destination is an awesome sight for both the people watching the parade of Vettes and the drivers and passengers in the caravan.

For me, just owning such a great sports car has been a dream come true. A Corvette really is America's Sports Car. No other car, except for an expensive (six figures) foreign sports car or a vintage automobile (restored for tens of thousands of dollars) attracts as much attention as a Corvette.

Going to Cruise Night and mingling with the other CCDV members or driving to the annual Corvettes at Carlisle to go up and down the aisles of what must be the world's largest Corvette Flea Market is another experience that makes me glad I own a Vette.

One of my best days was with a previous Corvette, an Arctic White '89 Coupe with a 6-speed. I had just bought it and took it out for the first ride. It was like going to heaven. I drove it for the pure thrill of it. The car needed some restoration and in the months that followed I spent time and money on projects. I repaired and refinished the seats, rubber weather-strips, radio speakers and the glass top. One day after three runs at Englishtown, I got to ride in a truck with the '89 on the flatbed in the rear. That was my worst Corvette day.

I sold the '89 and looked for a C5 to continue the wonderful feeling of driving and taking care of a Corvette. For me, just polishing my Torch Red C5 is a way of relaxing and putting troubles on hold.

GasCap Submissions

All Gas Cap articles must be sent to Bob Rosenberg by the 25th of the month in order to be included in the Gas Cap. E-mail articles to him at rar21@comcast.net

Even, if you don't have an article to send in, we'd appreciate photos from any club events. We may not always have room for your photos, but the GasCap is so much nicer when we can include them. Please email your digital photos or a link to them.

Please write your articles using the 12pt Arial font. We try to leave any special fonts and font sizes, but please understand that we sometimes have to edit your articles because of size constraints or to maintain balance with the rest of the GasCap. Whenever possible, include a photo with your article. The GasCap goes to the printer on the first of the month and is normally mailed out on the next business day. Therefore, to be safe events which occur early in the month should be publicized in the previous months' GasCap as well as the current. Please send your articles in ASAP. Articles received late may not make it in until the following month.
