President's Message

T. Wayne Lankford

Well, spring has sprung, the trees are blooming, and our time for fun in the sun has begun. Our corvettes are slowly coming out of hibernation to once again rule the road and we as well to enjoy the friendships of the corvette family.

The March general meeting featured Mike Gibbons and Steve Spencer from Bryner Chevrolet. The presentation was informative highlighting several C7 technical issues as well as price competitiveness by Bryner Chevrolet. Also, congratulations to Bryner for being named #2 in their zone relative to corvette sales.

Our roving breakfast in March was held at the Eagle Dinner in Warminster. There were 29 hungry members in attendance, good friends, good food and a lot of fun. It was wonderful seeing Frank and Joanne Schmidt at breakfast. Frank is recovering from knee surgery and states that he is slowly getting back to normal, we wish him a speedy recovery.

The club store merchandise was inventoried and cataloged last week by several board members and matched Laura's final accounting. Again, we thank Laura for handling the store. We have discussed the club store at our board meetings as to how to proceed and what merchandise to offer the members. We feel that by offering a limited number of items such as a club hat, summer/winter jackets, newly designed dress club polo and a good club T-shirt. Going back to the basics gives us better inventory control and cash flow management. It was determined that each month at the general meeting, there will be a featured item(s) for sale. These items will be offered at special prices. Check the gas cap for a listing of items being sold. Once the inventory has been dramatically reduced, we will offer the newer, basic club merchandise.

We are still looking for a club member to take over club the store. The operation will be a lot easier than it has been in the past. Remember, without a volunteer, it won't come to fruition.

Our first cruise night of 2016 will be held at Lowes in Warrington on Saturday, April 16. Chris and Candy Merlino are again under contract to run this event for the club. They do a great job and we appreciate what they do for the club. While there, please give them a hand in the set up, tear down or by working the table selling the 50/50, sodas, water or pretzels. They thank you.

Dave Urbanek informed me that the club once again has been asked to be in the Memorial Day Parade in Warminster. They are looking for 10 cars so if you are able to attend, please let Dave or I know as soon as possible. We will have more particulars soon.

Our speaker for the April general membership meeting will be Mark Rudnick from Buyers and Sellers Connection, LLC. This should be a very interesting presentation.

See you at the April 14th membership meeting.

Many US Teenagers don't care about driving?

When I turned 16 and got my drivers license it was one of the most important and happiest days of my life. Getting my drivers license was a milestone that I'd been waiting for, ever since I could remember. It meant Freedom, yes with a capital F. That was then, it seems to be quite different now. Many teenagers aren't as excited as we were at being allowed to drive a car. Not all feel this way of course but enough do to make a noticeable impact. It's especially noticeable for the teens—in 2014, just 24.5% of 16-year-olds had a license, a 47% decrease from 1983, when 46.2% did. And at the tail end of the teen years, 69% of 19-year-olds had licenses in 2014, compared to 87.3% in 1983, a 21% decrease.

As a parent with teenagers today you could and would view these figures as good news. Watching your child pull out of the driveway at 16 years olds is a nerve wracking experience. How many of us lay in bed, wide-awake waiting to hear the garage door opening signaling that they were home safe and alls well. That's the positive side of teens not driving. The other side I wonder about is why have they lost that urge to drive?

The Internet is thought to be playing a big part in this. Teens can go on social media and with a touch of their fingertip communicate with any or all their friends and virtually go anywhere they wish. How depressing, at least to me it is. Another reason for this change is that many young people have tailored their lives around alternative means of transportation. Public transportation, UBER or simply building their lives around places they can walk or bike to most of the time.

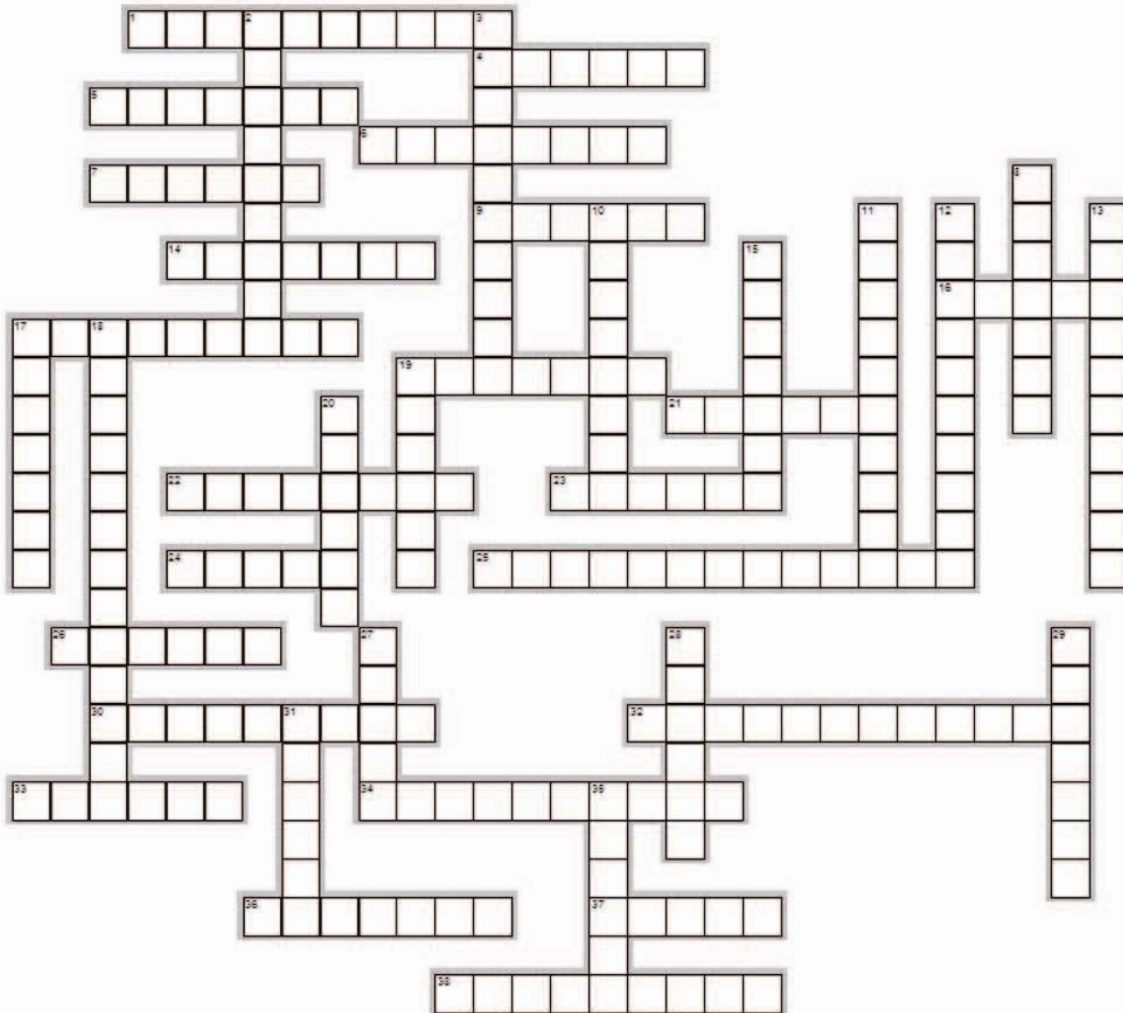

When surveyed this is what teens that didn't have a license had to say: 32 percent said owning and maintaining a vehicle was too expensive, 31 percent said they were able to get transportation from others, 22 percent said they preferred to bike or walk, and 17 percent said they preferred public transit. Twenty-two percent of the young non-drivers said they never planned on getting a driver's license.

For me I cannot imagine sitting on a bus wearing headphones listening to "Little Deuce Coupe", while searching YouTube on my Smartphone for a video of someone in the driver's seat of a convertible tooling up the Pacific Coast Highway perfect on a summer day. Strange days indeed.
