President's Message

T. Wayne Lankford

Spring started damp and cool with cruise night being cancelled for May. It was a good call by Chris and Candy since it started to rain a little while after set up would have been completed. There is a lot involved when it comes to the set up and the tear down and they appreciate everyone's assistance.

It seems that summer just hit us between the eyes with high humidity and 90 degree temperatures. It seems to me we never have a true spring anymore. I am praying for slightly cooler temperatures and clear skies for not only our clubs 46th annual Cavalcade of Corvette's but also cruise night being held the same day as well at Lowe's in Warrington. It will be a long day but well worth the effort by one and all.

Steve Fisher and the Cavalcade Committee have again done an excellent job in the preparation and coordination of all aspects of the event to ensure another successful "Cavalcade of Corvette's". Just a reminder, if you have not signed up to help, it is not too late to volunteer. This is a rain or shine event. The committee will be selling the new 2016 Cavalcade shirts at the general meeting on June 9th in advance of the event on June 18th. It would be nice if everyone who purchases a shirt at the meeting and attends the Cavalcade wears the shirt. They are really different this year and a good promotion for our club. Thanks to Marge and Bill for their hospitality in holding the meetings at their home. Afterwards, all of us enjoy a sumptuous dessert of double chocolate or apple cake prepared by Marge's husband Bill! (Only joking, thank you Marge for all your hard work and delicious desserts.)

The May roving breakfast was held at the Dublin Towne Diner. We had eighteen hungry members attend not only for the good food but also conversation and a few laughs with friends. The June roving breakfast will be a brunch at Katie O'Donnell's Irish Pub on June 26th at 11:00 AM. Hope to see you there.

I am in the process of changing the format of the Gas Cap to try and enhance our publication by adding some new features and categories. This in turn would allow us to present to the club a variety of topics and club related material. I will be meeting with Russ Parker to present my ideas and to see if my thoughts and ideas would work.

Congratulations to Ron Gaffin on the purchase of his new 2016 Torch Red Coupe.

Gas Cap, Website & Club Related Issues

If you have issues with the website such as: lost password, username, sign-on or receiving the Gas Cap, please e-mail Bill Burkholder at wburkholder4@comcast.net. Please include your screen name, real name, and e-mail address. Do not e-mail "WebGuy" as he only handles the technical aspects of the website. You can also e-mail any questions that you have regarding CCDV or Bill. He will re-direct the e-mail to the proper chairperson who will be able to assist in resolving issues

Please check the calendar of events from the activities committee. There are many interesting and fun day events and shows scheduled over the course of the few months. Please note: If you have not signed up for the Ocean City Boardwalk show, “a day at the beach corvette style”, do so ASAP. Time is running out and you don’t want to be left out!

I hope to see everyone at the June 9th general membership meeting.

A Visual History of Corvette Logos, Part 2

By Rain Noe - Jan 31, 2013

In 1977, Chevy ditched the "sunburst" design for their Corvette logo and went with (above) this clean, graphically-stylized update on the original crossed flags. The fleur-de-lis from Louis Chevrolet's family crest is still up front on the red flag, with the Chevy "bowtie" partially obscured behind it.

1978 was the Corvette's 25th Anniversary, and cars released that year got this fancy badge:

Corvette's from '79, however, reverted to the design of the '77.

In 1980 a new decade arrived, bringing with it more angular designs. The '80 Corvette saw a weird kickback to the 1963 design by arranging the flagpoles in such a way that they formed a "V." Conspiracy theorists will see a Firebird or Thunderbird logo in their mind's eye, but I don't think those cars were truly competitive fears, as the former wasn't in the same price range and the latter wasn't in the same performance category. In any case, the logo persisted through '81.

Buyers of the 1982 "Collector Edition" Corvette had this special badge with the throwback circle from the '63 or '73 or '76. It's also unusual in that the fleur-de-lis is dispensed with altogether, and for the first time in years we see an unobstructed bowtie.

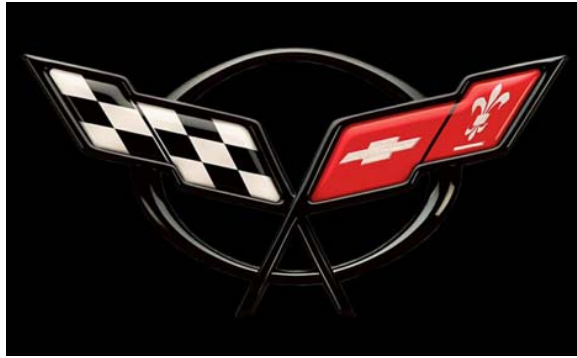

For 1983 to '84, the fleur-de-lis again takes a hike, and the bowtie reigns supreme. The graphic treatment of the waving flag is dispensed with and the flags switch sides; I have no idea why, but it screams "focus group." The circle also makes a comeback.

Surprisingly that design, much like the Corvette's body style, would remain in place largely untouched for fourteen years. But in 1993, the car's 40th Anniversary, it was briefly interrupted by this variant:

But it's not until 1997 that the '83 design is retired at last. Its replacement brings back the stylization of the flapping flag, sees the return of the fleur-de-lis, and though that symbol now takes a back seat to the bowtie, they are both left unobstructed:

The early days of the Corvette, where the logo was updated every few years, are over. The logo above is left alone until 2005 when it gets this refinement, seemingly in step with the advancements in computer graphics at the time:

The fleur-de-lis only disappears once more, briefly, for the "Centennial Edition" (Chevy's centennial, not the Corvette's) for 2012:

Finally we arrive at the most recent redesign, for the 2014 we mentioned earlier.

As a sign of the times, it's the most graphically-detailed version of the logo yet. The flags are no longer recognizable as such, yet retain the vestigial angles once meant to indicate breeze-flapped fabric. The bowtie is beveled, and both the black checkers and the red surfaces are striated.

If history's any indication, this logo will be in place for years before we see a redesign. So: Now that you've seen virtually every Corvette logo under the sun, which is your favorite, and why?
