President's Message

T. Wayne Lankford

Well, in last months message I stated that I did not want Jinx the remainder of the month but I believe I did. The monthly meeting was cancelled for the second time in four years due to a heavy wet snow storm. I felt it best to cancel the meeting early not knowing what the rest of the day/evening would bring and felt for the safety of the membership, it was the smart thing to do.

The speaker for February was to be Terry Shaw. He graciously accepted our invitation to be the speaker at our April meeting.

At the March general membership meeting, we will try again to hand out the "25 Year Membership Awards" to thirteen of our club members. As stated, we have five members from 1990 and eight members from 1991.

The "Cavalcade Committee" has been meeting and finalizing all of the particulars for our "Cavalcade of Corvettes" being held on Saturday June 17th at the Upper Moreland Intermediate School. We are still looking for someone to step up and take the chairmanship of the committee. This is Steve Fishers last year as chairman and if the club wants to continue the show, we need an individual to step forward.

The activities committee has been working on many interesting and fun activities for the club so please stay tuned for upcoming posted events on the web site.

It won't be long now until we kick off the season with our first cruise night of the year on Saturday, April 15th. I can't wait. It's the start of another fun filled year.

I hope to see everyone at the March 9th meeting.

T.Wayne

THE CCDV DINNER AT TJ SMITH'S ON FEBRUARY 18, 2017

On Saturday, February 18th, with the Winter (??) temperature hovering in the mid 60's, a band of beautiful Corvettes arrived at TJ Smith's Restaurant in Warrington. We happily mingled until our reservation time and admired the cars, including three newly purchased Vettes owned by: Jeff & Julie Kauf ( Red), Ray & Tracey Marijczuk (Blue), and Ellis & Donna Gray (White).

The hungry Vettesters, 21 in number, were given two long tables in the corner of the restaurant for our Dinner Party. Two experienced waitresses were assigned to cater to our every dining and thirsty desire. They did a wonderful job!

We enjoyed a 4-course meal, consisting of appetizer, salad, entree, and dessert (Chocolate Cake or NY Cheesecake). For our entree, we chose between Chicken Marsala, Grilled Mahi, and a 12 oz. Strip Steak.

The food was very good!

The camaraderie of our CCDVers was outstanding! The conversations were great fun, interesting and animated. Laughter flowed easily. After 3 hours, we adjourned to the parking lot to continue our mingling. A great time was had by all!

Our next CCDV Dinner Party has been scheduled by Debbie & Dennis Trayes. We will be dining at Maggianos Restaurant in King of Prussia on Saturday, April 22nd at 6pm. We are limited to 25 people, and 12 people have already reserved their seats. If you are interested in joining the fun, please call Debbie & Dennis at 215-822-2352 by Friday, April 14th to be added to our party.

Save the Wave,

John Benischeck

AID FOR FRIENDS AT A GLANCE

The statistics in Philadelphia speak for themselves: 256,000 persons are age 60 and older.

Philadelphia seniors' poverty rate is almost double that of PA and the nation.

More than 120,000 seniors have trouble paying for life's most basic necessities.

13,000 older Philadelphians need help preparing meals; 73% live alone; 40% rarely leave their home.

Aid for Friends is one of the largest and most established home delivered meals program in Pennsylvania, serving 300,000 free dinner meals, 58,000 soups and 42,000 breakfast bags to an aggregate 1,700 home-bound persons each year. We also provide nearly 100,000 hours of friendly visiting annually. We have served more than 16,000,000 meals to 15,000 individual homebound persons over the past 40 years.

HOMECOOKED MEALS:

Aid For Friends' (AFF) volunteer cooks prepared 300,000 dinner meals at their homes, area churches, synagogues, organizations, and at our commercial kitchen. They donate most of the ingredients.

REAL FRIENDSHIP FOR THE ISOLATED:

AFF visitor volunteers develop a one-to-one relationship with their own special homebound friend. They bring seven frozen dinners to the same person once a week and sit and talk with them for a while.

MORE THAN JUST MEALS: AFF provides advocacy, nutritional beverages for the malnourished (Ensure), birthday and holiday gifts and occasional emergency financial assistance.

WE SERVE PEOPLE OF ALL AGES: 30% of those we serve are below age 60; 28% are over age 85.

NO COST: All food and services are provided completely FREE of charge

Thank you for your donations;
