OK, I'll admit it. I'm a certified "Pack Rat". But it's in my blood! My father was actually a repair genius who would straighten bent/used nails! He was obviously also very cheap. Our basement when I was growing up was a literal museum filled wall to wall with every tool & part for virtually every type of repair. And my dad could repair anything: auto, plumbing, electrical repairs to antiques, clocks, radios, TV's, jewelry – anything! Thus, going through the more than 6 boxes & bins of CCDV archives which were kindly being stored at Bob & Barb Weiss' home in Huntingdon Valley at least since February 2009, I was reminded even more than usual what an extraordinary Corvette Club we belong to.

And this brought me to thinking of my collection (mostly automotive – specifically Corvette) and what items of gold I possess merely in our garage. So here we go starting with the larger treasures: A very large artist framed drawing of our '76, a 30" square "DO NOT ENTER" street sign, a 30" official 8 sided STOP sign, a 24 x 30" official "SPEED LIMIT 25" & a "NO PARKING IN DRIVEWAY" authentic city street signs, 4 used tires including: an original Firestone Steel Radial 500 & 2 Goodyear Eagle GT-245-60-R15, my 4 original rally wheels + trim rings & center caps, a large hand drawn character sketch of me in my Navy uniform chasing some unknown redhead, an original 28 x 41" "Corvette Summer" 1978 movie poster, 2 wall clocks (1 from CCDV & 1 from Corvette's 50th Anniversary), 1 large "DANGER – HIGH VOLTAGE" red & black sign, my car show display poster by Don Terranova, over a dozen Cavalcade posters (yes I know they were NOT to be displayed in members' garages – so please don't tell anyone in CCDV?), a "NO STOPPING – ANYTIME" & a "NO PARKING – ANYTIME" authentic city street signs, plus 2 "Corvette Only – Parking" signs, a very large solid wood framed hanging display of the 1953 thru 1990 Corvettes – featuring the new ZR-1, a large 1976 Chevy dealer showroom metal display with all that year's available exterior body colors & options, a 16 x 20 blow up photo from July 1993 when CCDV held a Club photo shoot with 107 Club Vettes at the old Bucks County Drive-Inn, my framed 1st Dan Black Belt certificate from 1977, 4 large Black Belt posters (2 showing me breaking 10 inches of bricks), a vintage metal oil can/dispenser with an extending pour spout and a drive-inn movie speaker, an antique a-oohga brass horn, a CCDV 2011 members calendar (our '76 is featured in May), a few specific Corvette models of our '76 (along with a black '81 & a Polo Green Metallic '95 – models of our previously owned Corvettes) plus a few varied license plates including a favorite from Aruba – “One Happy Island” dated 2001, and several benches/shelves filled with a large variety of cleaners, wax, polishes, towels, Absorbers, flags, some small extra parts, thingamajigs, etc., plus plenty of auto/Corvette detail restoration & history books, lots of rolled up auto/Corvette posters, some original parts that I replaced when the '76 went modified, a low-rider floor jack, 3 of my favorite vintage Corvette T-shirts, 1 rake & several shovels of varying sizes & uses and of course, all this doesn't take into consideration the 30+ car show & race trophies, not including the numerous wall & dash plaques acquired over the years. BUT, my most prized possession of all (besides the “Yellow Monster”) is the 10 x 40” blue & orange neon – still working – electric hanging “OPEN” sign! (taken from the front inside doorway of a closing bank branch office years ago). See a few pictures on the following page.

So with all this stash, I guess I'm officially considered a hoarder!?! But it's still my fond get-away especially over the winter months when Yellow is still hibernating under cover until Spring. FYI: To be honest, I actually considered trashing this article after I had the opportunity to visit Steve Fisher's garage! All I can say is that I am sincerely thrilled that I didn't have to write my article on Steve's outrageous 4 car garage!! It would surely take a minimum of 6 months to do it justice. I am now very much appreciative for our little 1 car garage!!

Save The Wave,
Joel

And now it's time for some PS:

PS: In March Sue & I travelled south to get some sun while visiting Mickey & Minnie in FLA and so we missed the General Membership Meeting. I hope everything went well and we're back in time for the “Brunch at Bernie's” (wasn't that a movie?)

PSS: As opposed to giving the scholarship CECF funds to a few local Tech schools, Tim Simmons with assistance from Sue Fellman & Rose Ferrante volunteered to once again attempt on behalf of CCDV to locate some deserving “individual Tech School students” in order to disburse the scholarship funds which have been dormant for some time. FYI: This was CECF's initial intent and we're thankful Tim & his committee have agreed to resume this effort!

PPS: If anyone is also an NCRS member, in the Spring 2019 issue of the Corvette Restorer, is a very nice article on P. 47 – 49. The topic regards the “Corvette Club Trophy Program” then sponsored by Chevrolet Motor Division from 1959 to 1969 to honor all Corvette Clubs listed those years in Corvette News. Each Club was to present the trophy to a special deserving member. CCDV was honored and our Club president, Don Morway, was our recipient. I'm proud to say that when I was doing the CCDV's 50th Anniversary History book, Don gave his trophy to me and I will bring it for display at our April General Membership Meeting.

PPSS: Have you seen the C8 as yet? What do you think??

CECF CORNER

In an effort to be fully transparent, it was brought to the attention of the CCDV Board that after the new CECF board members reviewed the financial records of the CECF it would not be possible to purchase a raffle vehicle for 2019 without cashing in at least one CD and taking a significant financial penalty. This is because the CECF checking account was depleted as a result of the generous gifts given away by the exiting CECF Board in January 2019. We understand that the newly elected officers were not invited to the funds distribution meeting and were thus unaware of the impact this would have on fundraising the following year. As background, in prior years the CECF Board would advise the CCDV Board regarding its year-end distributions to the charitable recipients. Unfortunately, this did not occur this year. This recent revelation regarding insufficient funds in the CECF checking account took the CCDV Board by surprise. The CCDV Board was recently advised that the current CECF Board has understandably decided not to disturb the current funds that are included in CDs until maturity and are therefore looking at other avenues to raise money this year for the charities that have looked to us for support annually over the past 20 years. We look forward to the CECF Board sharing their proposals in the near future.

Sincerely,

CCDV Board of Directors

Saturday, March 23, 2019 Roving Breakfast

BERNIE’S is located on York Road in the middle of Hatboro. It was a crisp Spring day for our Brunch – actually, very crisp...and quite windy. But that didn’t stop eighteen hungry CCDVers from braving the elements and arriving at our monthly morning party.

We welcomed first-timers Steve and Adrienne Fisher and Prodigal Son, Dan Ritting, who were among the “usual suspects”. Kudos to the Josephs, the Hunsickers, the Allens and Joel – all of whom jazzed-up the parking lot with their colorful Corvettes. I am sure that once the weather warms a bit more, all of the members with “Summer-tire” Vettes will get them back on the road. (I had my Vette on the road twice this past week...on the warmer afternoons.)

We had our own private room, which was very nice. (And no one else could hear the glass that Johnny Bacon knocked over and shattered as soon as he entered the room – what a klutz!) The service was slow, but the food was tasty and the camaraderie was outstanding! Everyone had a blast!

The 18 attending CCDV Vettesters were:

Joan & Kevin Allen	Sandy & Richy Joseph
Johnny Bacon & Kathy Benischeck	T. Wayne and Pattie Lankford
Joel Fellman	Tracey and Ray Marijczuk
Steve & Adrienne Fisher	Paul & Barbara McMullin
Fran & Barry Hunsicker	Dan Ritting

A few pictures taken by Johnny Bacon from the Roving Breakfast of March 23, 2019:

On Sunday, April 14, 2019 we'll breakfast at The American Star Diner in North Wales at 9:30 am. See details above. I hope to see you there.
