Perhaps you've heard or have seen the movie: "Meet the Focker's"? Well, this is "Meet the Fellman's"

When Sue & I were both working, one of us would usually cook and the other would (or was supposed to) clean up. But we both like and prefer to cook even though Sue is the much better cook and is more dynamic/gourmet in the kitchen. I'm MUCH more basic – good with breakfast but my dinners compose of basics like Rice-a-Roni (my specialty). And actually, neither of us like to clean up!

When we do the wash, we have to keep apart because we both have our ways and do the wash slightly different. I like to compact batches while Sue is more particular and specific. And, once one of us starts, the other needs to keep away until it's done and keep any comments or constructive criticisms to ourselves.

Dress: I prefer to go as casual as possible especially since I have to dress up mostly every day for work. Sue likes to dress up more and more often. Sue also had to dress up for her work but she likes and appreciates that look! On occasion Sue will ask me if I really intend to go out looking like I do and in most cases I wind up changing from my shorts to slacks or sneaks to shoes, etc.

Being sick: Sue managed a large medical center for many years so she's used to being around doctors and is familiar with illnesses, etc. When Sue is under the weather, I can be close by for support and try to offer assistance or compassion.

As for me, I prefer to simply be "left alone" and not even consider seeing a doctor unless it's absolutely necessary or critical. Fortunately, I rarely get sick except for the usual old age ills.

Food: Sue (like our Brian) has a much better diet than me and she eats most foods (except Chinese). She's not big on a lot of meat but she eats several fish platters plus veggies and we seem to eat a lot of chicken dishes AND we both like pizza. Me, I'm mostly a meat & potato's guy. I'm both very choosy & boring. I have my favs and usually order the same meals, usually something Italian. PLUS as many of you already know, I eat “NO cooked green vegetables”! Sue does her best to encourage me & says I’d really like some – BUT, as I promised myself when I grew up and out of my parent’s home, NO veggies shall ever again pass through these lips.

Next comes driving: I prefer to drive everywhere but Sue thinks I drive too fast and follow too closely behind the car in front of me (and she’s probably right on both instances).

Sue loves to drive her new CX-5, especially back & forth to our shore place. But I think she drives too slow and leaves way too much space between us and the car we’re following.

Favorite Pass-times: Sue’s Happy Place is surely spending most of the summer at our condo in Margate. She’s always been somewhat of a beach bum and she can spend hours reading a good book while on a lounge chair on the beach. Plus, she tans without hardly any effort.

Me, on the other hand, I’m more a pool person versus the ocean. Plus I have to get a good burn a few times before my skin finally settles down and tans. The beach does nothing for me and I preferred our prior vacations out West mostly to Las Vegas or on cruise ships in the Caribbean. Besides, Sue well knows, I’d actually prefer to be racing the Yellow Monster or at some CCDV event.

Television: Sue watches HG-TV & she also greatly enjoys the various cooking shows as well as The “Q”. I’m OK with Property Brothers and David Venable on the Q (in small doses), but me, I like automotive shows and all the World War history shows. I also like most sports, especially football, soccer, golf plus MMA and the dance competition shows.

We both enjoy all the MASH re-runs plus Wheel of Fortune, NCIS and all the Law and Order episodes, plus several shows on Public TV: including Downton and then Victoria. However, you’ll practically NEVER see anything political on our TV!!

I’ll now ask: if you prefer I stop my silly rantings here in my Prez articles, please let me know and like from Dragnet, I’ll try to resort to reporting “Just The (CCDV) Facts M’am” “10-4 Over & Out”.

And listen, whatever you do, please don’t tell Sue that you heard any of this from me!

I’LL DENY EVERYTHING!!

Meanwhile, Save The Wave, Joel

Post Script Time:

PS: Can you believe it? We’re approaching our 49th Annual Cavalcade and from the 60’s (yes, I vaguely remember the 60’s), “you better be there or be square”.

PSS: Our first Cruise Night in April was a sellout! I didn’t arrive until around 6:30 and had a hard time finding a spot. We must have had at least 150 – 200 cars! Thank you Candy, Chris, Rosie, Henry, etc. for a great start to the 2019 monthly cruise night season. I suggest you try to get there early if you can.

PPS: OK, so now that you met me, I want to meet you all especially at our 49th Annual Cavalcade. I also hope you all signed up to show your Vette and work there. We always need extra helpers!!

PPSS: Our May speaker, scheduled by Ray Mariczuk, was Steve from H&R Audio in Warminster. He was quite taken back by all the accolades H&R received from our members. It’s apparent they are top notch and come highly recommended if you should need any auto audio work or repairs.

When you are ready to join, print out our Membership Application.

CECF CORNER

Hello CCDV Club Members,

Once again, we are at that time when we begin activities for our annual raffle, proceeds which support our grants to local non-profit organizations. As I have said before, it is you, our members, that have been instrumental in making our charitable donations successful through support and sales of these raffle tickets. I would just like to remind everyone that we need your help in selling these tickets. I was invited to the CCDV Board meeting where I distributed raffle tickets. I am proud to announce that our Board Members took over one hundred tickets. We are grateful that the board members are willing to step up to the plate to support the club and our charitable wing.

In the early part of June, CECF will have tickets available online which can be purchased by Visa, Master Card, American Express and Pay Pal. Tickets will be on sale at our next general membership meeting on June 13, 2019 and they can be purchased with cash, check or credit card. Once you have purchased your ticket you will receive an email with a copy of your ticket. These raffle tickets are tax deductible. Check out the tour of one of Royal Caribbean Cruise Liners and a video of Coco Cay Island at our new site at: <https://cecfcharities.org/>. We are looking for volunteers to assist in selling tickets at the June 8, 2019 Cavalcade, Doc's Rock the Block Car Show, Ocean City Boardwalk, and the Hatboro Car Shows. Please contact Ed Scannapeico for details.

At our next general membership meeting in June we will be collecting for a Soup Drive for the Aid for Friends Foundation. The organization distributes the soup to those elderly who are home bound and may have little contact with family or friends. Some of the volunteers who distribute the soup take the time to sit and talk with the recipients, making them feel not so alone in this world. I feel blessed and I am sure many of you feel fortunate not to be in this position. We can make a difference for people who live in our local communities through this simple act of kindness. Won't you help us make an impact for Aid for Friends by bringing soup to our next meeting? Thank you for your support and for your involvement.

Respectfully Yours,

The CECF Board

Saturday, May 25, 2019 Roving Breakfast at The Heritage Family Restaurant

The Heritage Family Restaurant is located on Route 113 in Franconia – next to Harleysville. A “Tip ‘O The Hat” to Fran and Barry Hunsicker, who recommended this fine venue.

It was a beautiful Spring day as we steered our GM Chariots into the parking lot. Happily, there was sufficient space so that all of our different colored Corvettes were in a single line – Very Cool!

We welcomed first-timers Barbara and Ted Brooks, who joined us at our morning party. Most of us went for the very well-supplied and tasty Buffet. The service and food were excellent and there were a lot of laughs and interesting conversations! Everyone enjoyed themselves! I think we should do this again next month. (Note to self.) What a great idea!!

The 20 attending CCDV Vettesters were:

Joan & Kevin Allen	John & Barb Pergine
Johnny Bacon & Kathy Benischeck	Debbie & Dennis Trayes
Barbara and Ted Brooks	The Always Hungry Fran & Joanne Schmidt
Fran & Barry Hunsicker	Paul & Ginny Wydominic
Tracey & Ray Marijczuk	Wayne and Linda Zaks (See Linda: I finally remembered your name,)

On Saturday, June 29th we’ll breakfast at The Cracker Barrel Restaurant in Plymouth Meeting at 9:30am. See details above. I hope to see you there!

Johnny Bacon

ACTIVITIES CORNER

CCDV has had a lively start to our travels this season. May and June cruise nights were blessed with spectacular weather, so that Candy Merlino was rewarded with wall-to-wall vehicles of every kind both months. Fifty-fifty tickets brought in plenty of money, pretzels were all sold out by two-thirds through the evening, Denny Matlack sold lots of club shirts and Joe Parente was all smiles selling lottery tickets. Penelope Hunt stopped by to drop off an item for the Cavalcade and ended up hanging out with Candy & Co. which included regulars Rose Ferrante and John Benischeck. Both evenings offered a great opportunity to schmooze with friends, listen to music and check out some neat cars.

Chesapeake Inn/Schaeffer's Canal House Trip

In late April we ventured down to the Chesapeake Inn for lunch. Ray and Tracey Marijczuk made reservations and even travelled down to the restaurant in advance to secure special parking and to select space in the dining room. Well, “the best-laid plans of mice and men often go awry,” and they did. First, no reserved parking and then they were going to seat us on the porch with rain threatening. Well, Joe Parente got on his phone and called Schaeffer's Canal House across the canal.

Fortunately, they were able to seat all of us immediately and we had excellent food. That last-minute switch turned from catastrophe to serendipity. All's well that ends well.

Kreider Farms and Cat's Meow Restaurant Trip

From all accounts those who caravanned to the 3000-acre Kreider Farms and Cat's Meow Restaurant on May 11, 2019, experienced a novel and entertaining day. John and Rose Indelicato planned this delightful outing for our club down to a tee. Visitors were transported around the farm on a 90-minute tour on either a bus or trolley. The cow palace housed 1700 cows which are milked on a milking merry-go-round each day. Ken woods matched his visit to Turkey Hill, posing again, with a cow below. The farm produces tens of thousands of eggs which are distributed across Pennsylvania. Our travelers were wowed by the quality and tastiness of the lunch and were treated to ice cream at the end. It was a great trip!
