I want to tell you a story and it may just hit home for many of you. The month I bought our new '76 I was so thrilled and proud. Sue and I both previously owned some pretty great cars, but this was the car I longed for forever - my/our first Corvette. I would take pictures of my pride and joy wherever I/we went. And remember at the time this was my one and only means of transportation so I drove it EVERY day – like the mailmen – in rain, snow, sleet or hail. I drove it every day for three years when I finally purchased and drove a beater so the Vette could be garaged.

What I haven't as yet said was that the month I bought the '76, while taking its picture in Burholme Park in Northeast Philly, a member of CCDV (Russ Bentman) saw me and gave me a Club business card and he told me where and when meetings were held.

That same month Sue and I attended our first CCDV general membership meeting at the William Bolton Lodge in Ft. Washington and we joined the Club. HOWEVER, Russ wasn't there AND in fact he didn't attend a meeting for about the next 4-6 months! And so, not knowing anyone else there and what seemed like a lot of clicks within the attending Club members, we sat at a table by ourselves and even considered stopping our future attendance.

NOTE: Eventually, we would see what looked like another lost new member and invited them to sit with us and in a few months, we actually formed (for better or worse) a click of our own AND some of those members remain our best friends to this day!

And THIS is the point I'm getting to. I've heard similar stories many times: new members coming out and apparently not being satisfactorily welcomed to the point where they didn't want to stay or remain members.

This is a SAD story! I know we have a new members' table and ask all new members to stand up and tell us about themselves and "their Pride & Joy." BUT I would like to pose this question: what can we do to stop this new member reaction? Yes, obviously some new members bite the bullet and stay long enough to build a relationship with other members. But we need to embrace all new members to make them feel welcomed so they want to continue to attend meetings, Club activities/events, and hopefully they will be encouraged to get involved and become active "participating" members.

Of course, not everyone wants to do more than say they're a member, get the Gas Cap or a discount at Bryner Chevrolet and maybe attend a meeting now & then. Me, I'm a joiner: CCDV 43 years, NCRS & N/E Muscle Car Club both 27 years. But not everyone is like this. Besides, work, family, etc. may keep our members too busy to be a participating/active member. But, if a new member comes out, please let's do our best to bring out the best in our Club, especially since this IS and has been a GREAT Corvette Club with a long history and many accomplishments to be proud of! No Club can be everything to everyone. Maybe we're not for everyone or we don't offer something specific potential members are looking for. BUT as I said, let's do our best to welcome every new member, as we were all new members at one time.

Thank you all and "Save The Wave",
Joel

And now here's those PS you've been longing for:

PS: I'm glad we made it back from Disney in time for me to make the breakfast at Bernie's. I really enjoyed my meal & hope to go there again sometime soon.

PSS: I sincerely THANK Steve Fisher, our VP, for taking charge of the General Membership & Board meetings in March during my absence.

PPS: Anyone put a deposit down on a new C-8? I heard that July 18th is the reveal date.

PPSS: Have you taken the time to sign onto our new web site? It's taken some time to work out the bugs but it's now up and running thanks to Bob Bearn & Dennis Becker!

CECF CORNER

Hello CCDV Club Members,

My name is Joseph Parente and I was elected as the President of the CECF Charity Foundation. First, I would like to introduce to you the newly elected board members and their positions:

- Charles Milstein, Esq. (Vice President)
- Tim Simmons (Secretary and Chairperson for the Scholarship Fund)
- Steve Howard (Treasurer)
- Bob Lear (elected Alternate Treasurer)
- Ed Scannapieco (Public Relations and Ticket Sales)

As a new board we are going through a transition period so that we may maintain and preserve this charitable foundation of our club. At this time, I would like to thank the Committee for the Scholarship Fund: Tim Simmons, Sue Feldman and Rose Ferrante for their time and effort in researching and identifying two worthy recipients of CECF grants who will be furthering their education in the automotive field.

As you are aware this year, we will be raffling off a 7-day cruise to the Caribbean and limiting ticket sales to 1500, increasing your odds of winning. Tickets will be available at our next meeting and they can be purchased on-line at <https://cecfcharities.org> our new website in the near future. Use the link to take a look at our new website!

I am hoping that I can get club participation, because it is you, the members, who represent everything that has been done to raise money for this Charitable Foundation which grew out of The Corvette Club of Delaware Valley. It is your involvement whether you have purchased one ticket or have sold many tickets, each one of you have contributed in your own way to help those who are in need. This is what makes me proud to represent all of you.

If any of our members would like to volunteer to help us sell the raffle tickets at some of our different functions, please let us know by emailing info@cecfcharities.org or contact me at cecf@mortontowing.com. Our goal is to keep our new website up to date with the foundation's functions as well as current financial information. As always please feel free to reach out to us. And thank you for your support!

Respectfully Yours,

Joseph Parente

Saturday, April 14, 2019 Roving Breakfast at The American Star Diner

Our own Debbie and Dennis Trayes recommended The American Star Diner, which is located on Welsh Road, near the Montgomeryville Mall. It was a cloudy, but thankfully a DRY, Spring day that brought 22 hungry Vettesters out to our morning party. We greeted each other and “chewed the fat” out in the parking lot. As 9:30 a.m. approached, we entered to occupy our designated three tables. We welcomed first-timers Wayne and Linda Zaks (who own a C-2 and a C-6), and “Prodigal Sons” Kerry Duke and Dan Wurst. And it was great to see Ken and Debbie Stacy back again.

The “long distance” award goes to Paul and Ginny Wydominic, who traveled from Florida. The food was well-served, hot and delicious! (And did I mention that the Bacon was both plentiful and superb.) This is a morning party with lots of laughs. Plus, it’s an easy and great way for new members to join an activity. Everyone had a great time!

The attending CCDV Vettesters were:

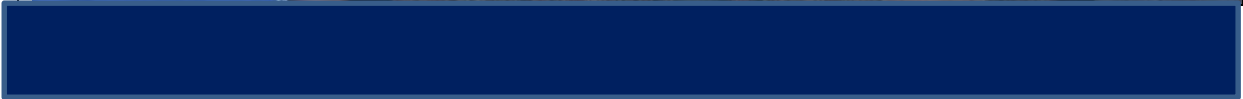

Joan & Kevin Allen	Fran & Joanne Schmidt
Johnny Bacon	Ken & Debbie Stacey
Kerry Duke	John Pergine
Fran & Barry Hunsicker	Debbie & Dennis Trayes
Tracey and Ray Marijczuk	Dan Wurst
Paul & Barbara McMullin	Ginny & Paul Wydominic
Wayne and Linda Zaks

On Saturday, May 25th we’ll breakfast at The Franconia Heritage Restaurant on Route 113 in Telford at 9:30 a.m., see details above.

I hope to see you there!
